Machine Intelligence Research Institute
ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

The Machine Intelligence Research Institute is dedicated to conducting its operations in compliance with environmental laws. The organization does not want to put at risk the environment, employees or the public.

The Machine Intelligence Research Institute will continue to commit resources and to take appropriate steps to comply with environmental laws. We may adopt additional standards and procedures beyond those required by law if we deem the same advisable.